Candidate Acknowledgment & Recruitment Privacy Policy

1. Purpose

This policy explains how the Company may collect, use, protect, retain, and disclose personal information provided by candidates during the recruitment, evaluation, interview, and hiring process. The Company is committed to handling candidate information responsibly and in accordance with applicable laws and legitimate business requirements.

2. Scope

This policy applies to applicants and candidates being considered for employment, contract, consulting, temporary, internship, or other professional opportunities with the Company.

3. Information We May Collect

During the recruitment process, the Company may collect information reasonably necessary to evaluate a candidate, including:

- Name, address, telephone number, and email address;
- Resume, employment history, education, qualifications, certifications, and professional licenses;
- Information provided through applications, interviews, assessments, and recruitment correspondence;
- Professional references and employment-verification information;
- Background-check information, where applicable, permitted by law, and appropriately authorized; and
- Other information voluntarily provided by the candidate or reasonably required for the recruitment process.

Payroll, tax, banking, benefit, or similar onboarding information may be requested separately if a candidate progresses to the appropriate hiring or onboarding stage.

4. Use of Candidate Information

Candidate information may be used to:

- Review qualifications and suitability for available positions;
- Communicate regarding applications, interviews, assessments, and recruitment status;
- Verify professional qualifications, references, or employment history;
- Conduct authorized screening or background checks where applicable;
- Maintain recruitment and compliance records; and
- Complete hiring and onboarding requirements if an offer of employment or engagement is made.

5. Disclosure of Information

Candidate information will be limited to individuals and organizations with a legitimate need to access it. Information may be disclosed to authorized Company personnel, recruitment or background-screening providers, professional advisers, technology providers, regulators, or government authorities where reasonably necessary or legally required.

The Company does not authorize unnecessary disclosure or use of candidate information for unrelated purposes.

6. Data Security

The Company uses reasonable administrative, technical, and organizational safeguards designed to protect candidate information from unauthorized access, misuse, alteration, disclosure, or loss. Candidates are also encouraged to use reasonable care when transmitting confidential or sensitive information during the recruitment process.

7. Data Retention

Candidate records may be retained for the period reasonably necessary to complete the recruitment process, maintain appropriate business records, consider candidates for future opportunities where appropriate, and satisfy applicable legal or regulatory requirements. Information that is no longer required will be securely deleted or disposed of in accordance with applicable policies and requirements.

8. Candidate Rights

Where provided by applicable law, candidates may request access to, correction of, or other permitted action concerning certain personal information maintained by the Company. Requests may be submitted through the Company's designated recruitment or human-resources contact.

9. Confidentiality

Information identified as confidential and provided to a candidate during the recruitment process should be used only for purposes related to the candidate's application and evaluation.

Candidates should not disclose confidential Company, client, employee, business, financial, technical, or operational information obtained during the recruitment process unless authorized or legally required.

10. Policy Updates

The Company may update this policy when necessary to reflect changes in recruitment practices, business operations, technology, or applicable legal and regulatory requirements. Material changes affecting a candidate's information will be handled in accordance with applicable requirements.

CANDIDATE ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I acknowledge that I have received and reviewed the Candidate Acknowledgment & Recruitment Privacy Policy and understand the information provided regarding the Company's recruitment process and handling of candidate information.

I understand that this acknowledgment does not constitute an offer or guarantee of employment, create an employment contract, or alter the terms of any future written employment or engagement agreement.
